

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY OF BELGRADE

The University of Belgrade is the oldest and the largest university in Serbia. All state universities in Serbia and several universities in the region were founded by the University of Belgrade. Nowadays, the University of Belgrade consists of 31 schools, 11 research institutes, and 8 centers in the fields of vital importance to the functioning of the University, such as: career development, technology transfer, quality assurance, strategic management and planning, work with physically challenged students and Computer Center. The University Library "Svetozar Marković", with more than 3,500.000 volumes, is also a member of the University.

The University disposes of 11 endowments provided by affluent citizens of Serbia and 7 funds for supporting 200 best students of the University of Belgrade. The organization of former students of the University of Belgrade – Alumni of the University of Belgrade – was founded in 2008.

The University of Belgrade provides training in traditional and some new emerging disciplines. Its schools are divided into four groups: - Sciences and Mathematics

- Technology and Engineering Sciences
- Medical Sciences
- Social Sciences and Humanities.

As the largest learning community in this part of Europe, with 310 study programs, of which: 88 undergraduate, 134 master, 67 doctoral studies, 17 academic and 4 applied specializations, 85,762 students and 3,032 academic and research staff, 2,265 papers on SCI, SSCI and AHCI lists, numerous publications and scientific and research projects, the University of Belgrade has unique responsibilities and opportunities toward the society.

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

It has a very long tradition in academic and cultural exchange, as well as inter-university and international cooperation with universities within the country and abroad. The University of Belgrade has also a great experience in cooperation with international organizations focusing on higher education. This is clearly shown by the bilateral agreements of cooperation concluded with more than 180 universities on every continent, membership in the European University Association (EUA), the Black Sea Universities Network (BSUN), the Danube Rectors' Conference (DRC), the Balkan University Network, the University Network of the Adriatic and Ionian Basin (UNIADRION), Association des Universites Francophones (AUF) and others. The Rector of the University of Belgrade is the President of Conference of Universities of Serbia, which consists of 17 accredited state and private universities. The University of Belgrade takes active part in European programs as a grant holder and partner in many projects (TEMPUS, FP7, CIP, Erasmus, Erasmus Mundus, EUREKA, COST, IPA etc.). Academic Artistic Associations of the University of Belgrade, 'Branko Krsmanović' and 'Španac', also play an active role in students' life.

Having signed the Bologna Declaration, the University of Belgrade with the aim of joining European Higher Education Area. For more information about the University of Belgrade please visit http://www.bg.ac.rs.

IMPORTANT: CEEPUS applicants who need Acceptance Letter from the University of Belgrade, or need help or information in arranging any academic matter, must contact their preferred UB faculty directly. The list of all UB faculties with websites and contact details is available at the following link: http://bg.ac.rs/en/members/faculties/faculties.php

ENTERING THE COUNTRY AND TEMPORARY STAY PERMIT

All information on regulations and procedures regarding visas and temporary stay of foreigners in Serbia are available online on the website of the Ministry of Interior of the Republic of Serbia: http://www.mup.gov.rs/cms_eng/home.nsf/inf-for-foreigners.h

ENTRY VISA

There are many nationalities which do not need any entry visa for Serbia. However, please see the following link to check whether your nationality requires entry visa for Serbia: http://www.mfa.gov.rs/en/consular-affairs/entry-serbia/visa-regime

Even though nationals of some countries (not everyone) may enter the Republic of Serbia with their ID cards only, students/staff on exchange are required to have with themselves their valid passports to be able to obtain mandatory temporary stay visa, and therefore are strongly recommended to use it when entering the country as well.

General entry requirements: http://www.mfa.gov.rs/en/consular-affairs/entry-serbia/entering-serbia-requirements

In case you do need visa, here are the general visa requirements: http://www.mfa.gov.rs/en/consular-affairs/entry-serbia/visa-requirements

Visa applications should be submitted to the Embassy or Consulate General of the Republic of Serbia abroad. Also, if you have any questions or concerns regarding entering the RS or your temporary stay as student/staff, we strongly recommend you ask your local Embassy of the Republic of Serbia for help. At the following link you can find the list of Serbian embassies around the world: http://www.mfa.gov.rs/en/embassies/serbian-diplomatic-missions/serbian-embassies

TEMPORARY STAY

As an academic exchange visitor, you will need to obtain your temporary stay visa (residence permit) for legal stay in the Republic of Serbia during your exchange.

On the following link you can find the general list of required documents, as well as specific documents for the stay related to academic exchange purpose (enrollment/attendance certificate from the University): http://www.mup.gov.rs/cms_eng/home.nsf/terms-for-issuance-of-authorization-for-temporary-stay.h

NOTE: If your arrival to the Republic of Serbia is postponed or cancelled due to late start of visa obtaining procedure the NCO Serbia cannot guarantee the realization of your CEEPUS scholarship.

If there are changes in the period of your stay in Serbia, you must notify the NCO via e-mail at least 30 days in advance, otherwise the accommodation is not guaranteed.

Also, you can change the period of your stay only once due to a strict schedule made by student dormitory and the lack of vacant rooms.

REGISTRATION AT THE UNIVERSITY OF BELGRADE

IMPORTANT: All CEEPUS scholarship holders are obliged to register at the IRO of the University of Belgrade right upon their arrival to Belgrade, and to show their ID document (preferably passport, please see the previous page for explanation) to the UB contact person:

SCHOLARSHIP PAYMENTS

Scholarship payments are done at the main administrative building of the University of Belgrade, office 17 (Studentski trg 1, 1st floor), as per rates published at www.ceepus.info and http://erasmusplus.rs/ceepus-2/?langkl=lat.

Monthly scholarships are generally paid in two installments³ - two times in month: 1st and 17th day in month (unless it's weekend, in which case the payment takes place the first following working day).

You must come to the IRO office (23) to register at least 4 working days before the first payment date (you do this only for the first time, after registering).

Each month scholarships are calculated in accordance to the real time spent in Belgrade, at the University of Belgrade under the CEEPUS framework.

IMPORTANT:

At the end of their exchange stay, each scholarship holder is obliged to come to the main UB IRO (Office 23, Studentski trg 1), to sign the Exchange Termination form. If they fail to do so, their Mobility will be treated as incomplete.

ACCOMMODATION

STUDENT DORMITORY

With the kind support of the Ministry of Education, Science and Technological Development of the Republic of Serbia and the Student's Centre Belgrade, the University of Belgrade is able to offer paid accommodation in the Student Dormitory "Rifat Burdžević".

"Rifat Burdžević" hall of residence is located at Milana Rakića 77, at Zvezdara.

"Rifat Burdžević" was built in 1948. One part of the capacity is meant for accommodating foreign students. Thanks to the international exchange of students which functions on the principles of reciprocity, each year this hall is visited by students mostly from Western Europe, Asia and North America. All rooms for foreign students are of the 1st category, with the characteristics of a small apartment. This hall of residence can accommodate 367 students in single, double and triple bedrooms of the 2nd category.

Rooms have beds, desks, chairs, lamps, cupboards, shelves, a direct phone line, connection for satellite dish and internet. Within the hall there is a porter's lodge, laundry rooms, a student restaurant, an info kiosk, a commercial restaurant, store and reading-room. The hall has video surveillance.

Video report on the RF hall (in Serbian): https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nvg_XcY1Mys

- * The Student's Centre reserves the right to change the dormitory, due to availability.
- * Number of available rooms/places is limited.

³ Unless stated otherwise in your offer letter or terms and conditions.

IMPORTANT: The accommodation for students and professors is provided on the basis of the CEEPUS incomings list, made by the NCO Serbia well in advance. The list is designed in accordance to awarded electronic CEEPUS applications.

Due to a longlasting procedure of announcing CEEPUS incomings to the "Rifat Burdzevic" student dormitory and the Rectorate of University of Belgrade it is obligatory to apply at the CEEPUS web site at least two months before your planned arrival to the Republic of Serbia.

Otherwise, CEEPUS Serbia cannot guarantee realisation and the payment of your CEEPUS scholarship.

In the case of unannounced arrivals of CEEPUS incomings to the Republic of Serbia, CEEPUS Serbia cannot guarantee neither the accommodation of CEEPUS incomings nor the realisation of CEEPUS scholarship.

The accommodation is booked for the dates stated in your Letter of Award and the CEEPUS grant Contract. If there are changes, you have to inform the NCO via e-mail (ceepus@tempus.ac.rs).

RENTED ACCOMMODATION

Visitors can rent their own accommodation (for approximate prices, please see "Costs of Living" section of the guide). The University of Belgrade does not mediate in renting private accommodation, but there are numerous online resources for finding accommodation.

As an incoming student/professor, you can contact the INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE ERASMUS STUDENT NETWORK in Belgrade and ask for help on getting around in Belgrade:

http://www.esn.org/

http://belupgrade.esn.rs/

https://www.facebook.com/ESNBelUPgrade

COSTS OF LIVING

Please note that all costs listed in this document are approximate estimates only and are intended to help students plan their financial resources.

Actual expenditures can significantly vary depending on individual spending habits, and, of course, whether one plans to live alone or with flat mates.

We estimate that students need an average of €450-600 per month per person to cover their accommodation costs, costs of utilities, meals, city transportation, some necessary personal expenses and incidentals.

Instruction materials and textbooks are not included, as each school of the University of Belgrade has its own required literature, and the prices vary. Please see more under the "Costs of studying".

ACCOMMODATION AND UTILITIES

For those who wish to stay in rented accommodation: Prices depend on the size, location and the condition of the rented flat. However, approximate price of a shared flat (e.g. 2 people) in the urban city area would be €250-300 + utilities (€100-150).

MEALS

- Student dormitory: €6 per person per day for 3 meals (b/l/d)
- Lunch/Dinner at a local fast food / street food restaurant: €2-4
- Lunch/Dinner at a local pub/restaurant + one soft drink: €7-13
- Estimated cost of food (local shopping in addition to one meal at the student cafeteria or local restaurants): €40-70 per month

CITY TRANSPORTATION

- Monthly transportation student pass: €15
- Single ticket: €0.7

Public Transport in Belgrade: https://www.busplus.rs/

PERSONAL INCIDENTALS

Personal care products, laundry and house cleaning products, and other: €20

COSTS OF STUDYING

TUITION FEES

CEEPUS scholarship holders do not pay tuition fees, they are granted free accommodation, as well as discount prices in the student cafeteria.

TEXTBOOKS AND INSTRUCTION MATERIALS

The type and the amount of required literature varies significantly, and therefore it would be the best to contact the faculty of interest and check the prices of literature per each year. However, our approximate estimate is €100-300 per student per year (depending on the Faculty and the study level).

Web pages for each faculty can be found on the following link:

HEALTH INSURANCE

Important: For information on health insurance status for CEEPUS scholarship holders, please refer to the information package you have received from the NCO Serbia together with your award letter. Also, make sure you get well familiar with national health insurance for students legislation in your home country.

Additional information: Monthly health insurance for foreign students: €66 National Health Insurance Fund: Monthly health insurance for foreign students: €66
